FOREWORD

To portray some of the color incidental to life at Sul Ross is the goal of this book. We have selected pictures and events depicting typical campus life. Our purpose has been attained if the reader is able to recall from memory the flash of color and movement in the scenes and words we have given you.

PATRIOTISM

Love of country is a commendable virtue as long as it is founded upon ideals in keeping with the golden rule. But there is a higher patriotism than that engendered in the hearts of a people by the exercise of might over right, and there is a nobler heroism than that which marches under flaunting banners and flashes a glittering saber merely for show. This finer type devotes its efforts to the cultivation of those virtues which prompt heroism only when national honor and national safety are endangered.

It is to develop this type of patriotism that we pay tribute in this Centennial Year to those wise statesmen who through toil, sacrifice, and prophetic vision made possible our splendid system of public schools and our magnificent Institutions of Higher Learning as service and culture mediums in a great democracy. The deeds of Sam Houston, Stephen F. Austin, Mirabeau Lamar, James Bowie, David Crockett, and that long list of heroic dead should challenge a patriotism which will never violate those social virtues, that political freedom, that intellectual outlook, and that spiritual culture which their lives bequeathed to us as a heritage. And as we stand tonight in the lengthening shadows of the Alamo and face the dawn of the Centennial, let us pledge anew faith in our fathers, and reconsecrate our vows on the altar of a still greater Texas.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "H. W. Morelock". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a large, sweeping "M" and a long, horizontal tail stroke.

ALMA MATER

Where the rolling plains of Texas
End in mountains high,
There's a land where glorious sunsets
Flame in peerless sky.

Ring, ye Alpine hills, with music!
Joyous songs we'll raise.
Hail to thee, O Sul Ross College,
Thee we gladly praise.

'Tis a land of pioneer spirit,
Free as bracing air,
Where a handclasp means a welcome,
Friendship glad to share.

There our Texas youths do gather,
Heeding Wisdom's call,
Learn to love thee, Sul Ross College,
Love thee best of all.

—Rose Sharp Brewer.

BAND HISTORY

Sul Ross presents the young and growing Sul Ross Lobo Band.

This three year old aggregation has traveled many miles and performed on many occasions during its rapid growth.

Its snap and brilliance on parade and its ambitious and interesting concerts have made it most popular everywhere it has been.

A contemplated Centennial Exposition tour will climax for the Band a year of enjoyment and progress.

ATHLETICS

Because, when the way was the darkest, the road was the roughest, the clouds seemed to be the heaviest, and when the going was the toughest, he was always there with an encouraging word and a helping hand; we respectfully dedicate this section of the 1936 Brand to our beloved Coach.

The "T" Club of Sul Ross.

SUL ROSS 39, FT. CLARK 0

In this, the season's inaugurator, the Lobos got away to a fast start. Superior power and experience triumphed by a lop-sided score. The soldiers put up a fighting but futile resistance.

SUL ROSS 27, A. C. C. 7

Although at the half the score stood 7 to 7, the Lobos pulled a surprise passing attack and won the first major game by a fair margin. Pierce, fullback, scored all the touchdowns, but the way was paved by a hard-charging line and the offensive versatility of Warnock, Martin, Dabbs, and other backs.

SUL ROSS 33, KELLY FIELD 0

With the season well under way, the Lobos romped to another victory over inexperienced competition. The game was well-seasoned with long touchdown runs by Murray and Martin.

SUL ROSS 19, EL PASO SCHOOL OF MINES 7

The Lobos continued the unbeaten path with a win over their traditional opponents, the El Paso Miners. A large Marfa Fair crowd of 4,500 was well entertained by a closer game than was expected. The Muckers waged a spirited battle. The touchdowns were the result of three long power drives featuring runs by the speedy Warnock. Most of the credit, however, goes to the line which stopped all Miners scoring attempts.

F O O T B A L L

SUL ROSS 9, HARDIN-SIMMONS 15

In Abilene, Sul Ross was overpowered by the Cowboys in a thrill-a-minute game in which every possible type of score was tallied. Trailing 8 to 0 after the half the Lobos came back brilliantly. In consecutive drives Dabbs scored a touchdown and Pierce booted a field goal to place the Lobos in the lead by a 9 to 8 score. On the next play a Cowboy guard received a lateral and dashed 55 yards for the winning score.

SUL ROSS 36, SILVER CITY TEACHERS 0

Another Lobo runaway, though unexpected. In this game played at Silver City, New Mexico, the Lobo packs ran the Mustangs ragged. Lateral passing was especially effective.

SUL ROSS 6, CANYON 7

This second defeat of the season, played before Governor Allred and the visiting teachers from Chihuahua, against traditional opponents, was a tough upset to take. Sul Ross roundly outplayed the Buffs in every field, piled up 14 first downs to 6, and should have won by two or three scores. The fates decreed differently. Warnock's fifty yard dash proved to be the only Sul Ross tally. A long pass to Waggoner in the third quarter won the game for the Buffs.

SUL ROSS 20, ST. MARY'S 14

A victorious finale to a splendid season. The win was especially gratifying because of the high rating of the Rattlers. The Lobos conclusively proved their superiority despite the fact that the Rattlers were leading until the last quarter. Trailing 14 to 7 by dint of the valiant efforts of Doug Locke, the Pack unleashed a vicious attack and scored two swift ones on 80 yard marches. While the backfield made 17 first downs, the Lobo forward wall waged its best battle. The game was played at Del Rio.

ALAMO CONFERENCE STANDING

Team	Won	Lost	Pctg.
Sul Ross	8	0	1.000
St. Mary's	2	6	.250
Texas A. & I.	2	6	.250

Besides winning the first Alamo Conference basketball title, the Lobo cage squad set a record this year that established Sul Ross as one of the most powerful teams in Texas. They won nineteen games out of twenty-four played, piling up a total of 1026 points to their opponents 777. They defeated such powerful teams as the Chihuahua Anahuacs, champions of old Mexico, and the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys, defeated only once before. The season was climaxed by a trip to Denver to compete in the National A. A. U. tournament.

BASKETBALL

CUTHBERT CARLL.....Guard

1932-33, Freshman squad
1933-34-35-36, Varsity squad
1933-34-35, Captain
1935-36, Co-captain

Carll completed his career on the Sul Ross hardwood floor this year in the best possible form, combining accuracy, efficiency and experience to the best advantage of the team.

HOMER MORRIS.....Center-guard

1933-34, Freshman squad
1934-35-36, Varsity squad
1935-36, Co-captain

This year's play proved conclusively Morris' value as the keyman of the Lobos scoring attacks.

BIGHAM LUNA.....Forward

1935-36, Varsity squad

Luna's under-basket barrage was one of the features of the Sul Ross offense. He added color and flash to the team and led in point-making.

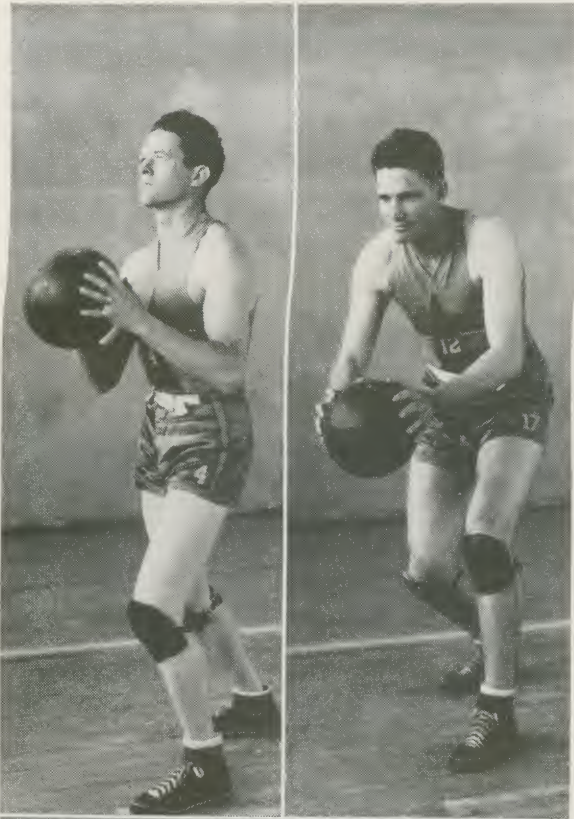

LOUIS BAGWELL.....Forward

1935-36, Varsity squad

Bagwell, another scoring demon, combined accuracy and flash with an ever-present calm. He was handicapped during the season by injury.

BASKETBALL

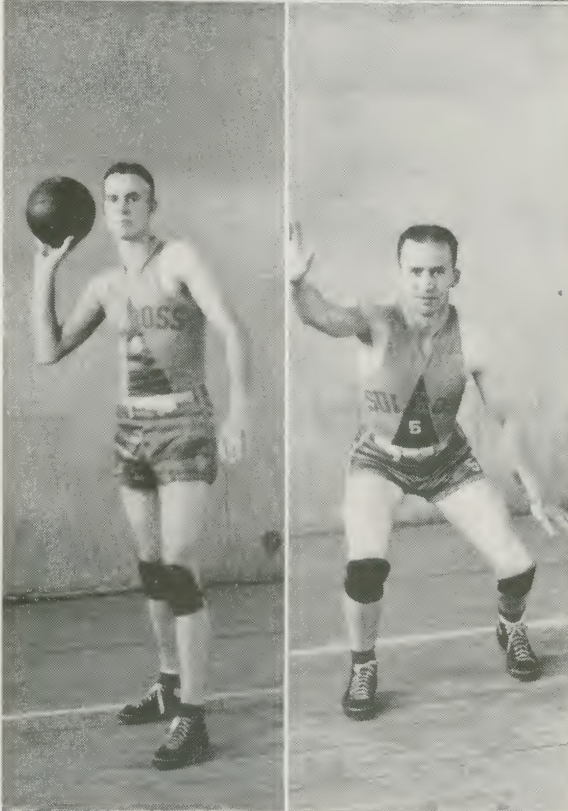

GEORGE ADDISON.....Forward
1933-34, Freshman squad
1934-35-36, Varsity squad

Addison made up for lack of size by a spirit and fight that never said die. His efforts were always dependable and praiseworthy.

AUBRA NOONCASTER.....Center
1933-34, Freshman squad
1934-35-36, Varsity squad

Through illness Nooncaster was lost to the team soon after the season began and his loss was felt to a considerable extent. He was a valuable man on the tip-off.

SAM OSBORNE.....Center
1935-36, Varsity squad

Osborne, a newcomer, took over the pivot position with the ease of a veteran, and his play improved rapidly through the season. He will be an asset to future squads.

ARTIE CONNALLY.....Guard
1930-31, Freshman squad
1931-32-33, Varsity squad
1935-36, Varsity squad

Connally also completed his athletic career in the Sul Ross gymnasium this year. He proved himself a capable and ready defensive player.

BASKETBALL

OLAN TIPPS.....Guard

1934-35, Freshman squad

1935-36, Varsity squad

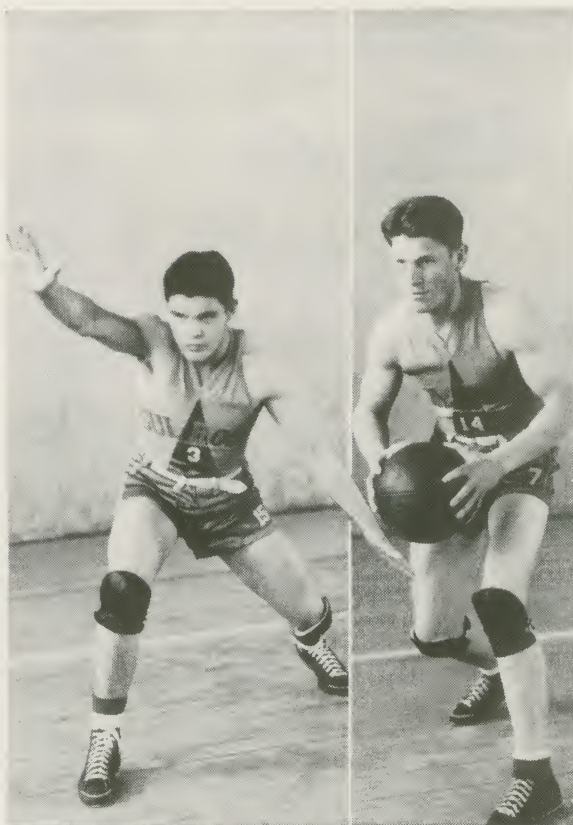

"Blackie" Tipps is another guard who is promising material for future teams. He displays a variety of cage talent.

NOLAN TIPPS.....Forward

1934-35, Freshman squad

1935-36, Varsity squad

"Red" Tipps was a flashy reserve forward who never lacked in fighting spirit. He has two more years to compete on Sul Ross squads.

JOHN GREEN.....Forward

1934-35-36, Varsity squad

Green, another senior player, has shown himself to be a veteran in every field of play, a speedy and able player. He will be missed next year.

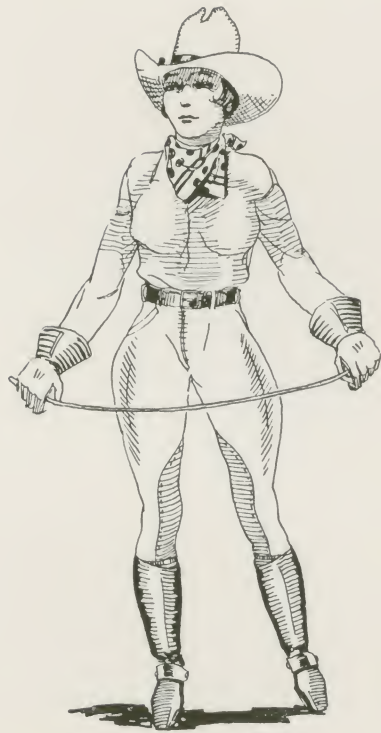

EARNEST CARAWAY.....Guard

1934-35, Freshman squad

1935-36, Varsity squad

Caraway is fast developing into a competent guard and we are looking forward to his play as a regular.

The bowling alley and tennis courts provide a setting for many women's athletic activities.

A view of the bowling alley and club house as a meeting place for handball players and horseback riders.

The slogan, "There is a sport for every girl as well as a girl for every sport" has been carried out in the Womans' Physical Education Department, main interest being centered in basketball, horseback riding, volley ball, hand ball, tennis, folk dancing, tapping, tumbling, golf, archery, and bowling. The interest in participation has been stimulated by group and class competition, and by the efforts of the Physical Education assistants who have served so quietly and efficiently. These assistants are:

REBA TAYLOR.Hand ball, volley ball, and tennis instructor
 IMOGENE CHRISTOPHER.Tapping and basketball instructor
 EVELYN ETHRIDGE.Mexican Folk dancing

Sponsoring of physical and social activities on the campus is the main purpose of the Womans' Sports Association, and in this capacity it has proved even more successful this year than in the years past.

W. S. A. officials during the past year have been Imogene Christopher, president; Sue Kinney, vice-president; Dorothy Burnam, secretary; Reba Taylor, treasurer; and Lutie Britt, faculty adviser.

Congratulations, Folks, on A Year of Achievement

35-36

SUL ROSS College can well put a check mark by the year '35-'36, for it has been a year of extraordinary achievement by the student body. While making excellent scholastic progress, Sul Ross has had its good name carried far and wide in the strenuous circles of intercollegiate athletic competition.

After winning six out of eight football games, Sul Ross has overwhelmed opposition in nineteen out of twenty-three basket ball games and carried off the Alamo Conference championship.

Upon this fine record and upon the splendid exhibition of sportsmanship in achieving it, we congratulate the entire personnel of the college. And, good luck next year!
